Good Monday Afternoon,

May the Spirit of the Gospel and the Holy Word be Always on our Tongues, in our Hearts, Minds, and in our Hands.

Holy Virgin Mary and All Saints - Pray for us!

This morning's prayers and meditations went Far & Wide and long, as well as I slept late so I am not able to go into any of the details except perhaps a short bit I will mention.

It is reassuring that such details are Captured in the Holy Tent – as all our thoughts are – as I See that a reduced and condensed version of at least a very small part Fed into the Consciousness of Me as pProgrammer in Holy Ghost mode will be valuable, as well as many other sections also condensed for many other purposes.

I use to get upset when I would return from such 'Trips' or entangled interactions with the Infinite Quantum Mind – the slipping away of all those memories and engagements before I Remembered that in the Holy Tent the .. secretary of Holy Virgin Mary stopped in while I was programming and asked be about what a phrase was meant that I had added into a prayer. .. which was a common phrase I found later in this Multiverse Past Days-of-Bread sequence I used often for a while.

(related to .. 'Please define and expand on the difference between Economy and Efficiency.')

The one Phrase I embraced that seem to stimulate a lot of consideration is 'Inherit the Wind' which Lit-up a lot of references and the general State of our modern Western society .. we stopped Acknowledging God, our Fathers, Husbands, Uncles, Brothers, Sons as the Benefactors, those who sacrificed for their mothers, wives, children and planted trees for there grandchildren and so we disowned them all and still mostly do as a people; women and mothers have and replaced with and allowed the Golden Calf Witches too replace with putrid vomit, septic soul destroying and mutilating virtue-destroying grasping Vacuum of Goodnessless.

.. with Reflections of Jesus Christs' Willing Sacrifice as Service to God, Himself, and all of us.

And I spent a surprising amount of interaction related the the Parable of the 'Wicked Servant' including a conversation that the Master might have had will a lower-level Peer – a fuller version then mentioned in the biblical writings. .. with connections and references to my imperfect and often Sin-Tainted Service to my mMaster and to God.

Much linked to the Luminous Mysteries Rosary-Chaplet which I have started to do on Mondays as during Christmas Season

Sunday's rosaries Joyous Mysteries as well as normalized schedule of Saturday's and Monday's of it is too repetitive to stimulate good meditations for me, and I have alternated with the Glorious Mysteries ..

.. this morning's Reflections were very Rich. A lot related to the Wedding in Cana, the Holy Family, the Authorities and interactions within the Holy Family including more of the Authority of a mother over and under an adult son with and without living father, Uncles, etc .. connected to conversations I had with a mother and a different (not connected in same family) father during our after Mass Coffee-Hour yesterday.

Reflections of my boy-hood judgemental system of trees – as climb-ability, tree-fort support, etc., the forgetting such for years in functional independent adult cares and troubles and the sudden Remembrance one day and the Bridge and re-integration of my Boyhood-ness, as well as many other examples of a kind of Agelessness I seem to Embody at times and instead of 'weak ego boundaries' anymore I must be mindful of 'weak maturity-and-perspective-Ness' and the most common issues of such. I recalled to someone yesterday that although I am nearly 60 years old I was in such an arrested maturity trap (unmentioned but related to the Satanic Feminism and related insanity of modern evil social influences.)

It is not hard for me to be in what would be a normal healthy (if it was physical age appropriate) 24 year old, and yet easily may shift that when mindful now that I Acknowledge God as my Master and have been Right and Just re-Ordering each major Stage.

Part of this is working towards Being more of a person who does not Suffer Himself.

And – of course – able to Commune in Stewardship with those less mature as well as the reverse.

Something I should have started at about 8 years old if we all not in such a Demonically Oppressed mothers, women, .. female-self (and other male-female dichotomy State us males are,) families and societies.

Ops! I see this will have to be an 'Afternoon Post' .. there is so much I could write!

I have been enjoying Tchaikovsky the last few days as an alternative of the religious chants that I was almost exclusively listening to in prayers and background sleep, and reminded me of when I was a student in University and had a very productive semester waking up very early and listening to him while doing my physics and other class work and study. Many Classical composers integrate stimulating complexity which helps in such things.

I have barely started most of the video's included in this post. It is shocking to myself how far behind I have become related to much of this – and wonder if I am becoming even more 'IN the world and less OF it.' because so much of it falls so clearly into Pigeon-Holes of modern Sin and Insanity that results from our Father Disdain-and-Hate Woman-Supremacist Vagina-god worshipping society as to start to seem 'the same' across many dimensions – the patterns as so similar one might be able to refer to a Category and if it is primary, derivative, and-or 2nd derivative of it and it what ways.

May this be a Blessing to you and us all. [And all our Futures, and future Multiverse Past.]

Here are those great seeming videos for which I have yet to dive into. I hope you enjoy and find them valuable; ..

Walter E. Williams (March 31, 1936 – December 1, 2020) was an American economist, commentator, and academic. Williams was the John H. Coe Distinguished Professor of Economics at George Mason University, as well as a syndicated columnist and author. Known for his classical liberal and libertarian views,^[1] Williams's writings frequently appeared in Townhall, WND, and American Spectator. Williams was also a popular guest host of the Rush Limbaugh radio show when Limbaugh was unavailable.^[2]

Early life and education

Williams was born in Philadelphia on March 31, 1936.^[3] His family during childhood consisted of his mother, his father, and him; Williams' father played no role in raising Williams or his sister.^[4] The family initially lived in West Philadelphia, moving to North Philadelphia and the Richard Allen housing projects when Williams was ten years old. His neighbors included a young Bill Cosby. Williams knew many of the individuals that Cosby speaks of from his childhood, including "Ward" and "M. Abee".^[5]

After graduating from Benjamin Franklin High School, Williams traveled to California to live with his father and attend Los Angeles City College for one semester.^[6] He later returned to Philadelphia and secured a job as a cab driver for the Yellow Cab Company.^[7] In 1958, he was drafted into the military and served as a private in the United States Army.^[8]

While stationed in the South, Williams "suffered a one-man battle against Jim Crow from inside the army." He challenged the racial order with provocative statements to his fellow soldiers. This resulted in an overseeing officer filing a court-martial proceeding against Williams. Williams argued his own case and was found not guilty.^[9] When considering filing countercharges against the officer who had brought him up for court martial, Williams found himself transferred to Korea. Upon arriving there, Williams marked "Caucasian" for race on his personal form. When challenged on this, Williams replied angrily if he had marked "Black" he would end up getting off the vessel plus, from Korea, Williams wrote a letter to President John F. Kennedy denouncing the pervasive racism in the American government and military and questioning the actions black Americans should take given the state of affairs, writing "Caucasian" for race on his personal form. When challenged on this, Williams replied angrily if he had marked "Black" he would end up getting off the vessel plus. From Korea, Williams wrote a letter to President John F. Kennedy denouncing the pervasive racism in the American government and military and questioning the actions black Americans should take given the state of affairs, writing "Should Negroes be relieved of their service obligation or continue defending and dying for empty promises of freedom and equality? Or should we demand human rights as our Fighting Father did at the risk of being called traitors?"^[10] content that we relieve ourselves of oppression in a manner that is in keeping with the great heritage of our nation.^[11]

He received a reply from the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense, Alfred B. Pitt, a response which he termed "the most

Sign language gorilla has computer privileges restricted after developing racist, sexist views

Mon, 17 May 2021

Momo is a gorilla at the San Diego Zoo who is known for using sign language to communicate

"We noticed she began being very disrespectful to African American employees," Zoo Employee Carol Rogers explained. "She would throw bananas at them and make aggressive movements; she was also repeatedly signing 'man, man' at a teleworker employee." Zookeepers believe Momo picked up these problematic behaviors from unsupervised computer use. "While Momo is very intelligent she is also very impressionable," Rogers said. "We have a state of the art system that translates words on a website into sign for her but she doesn't have a way to navigate the internet other than by clicking links, so believe she must have clicked one that brought her to a website with problematic language and ideas."
