Good Saturday Afternoon,

May the Spirit of the Gospel and the Holy Word be Always on our Tongues, in our Hearts, Minds, and in our Hands.

Holy Virgin Mary and All Saints - Pray for us!

This mornings after prayer's and meditations (which I considered some of yesterday's good post which gave great feedback – see PostScript for URLs) I went to early Low Mass and then our monthly Catholic Men's Breakfast – for which we had a lot of men join us, and good conversation after – so I got home late morning and had little collected from yesterday to post here.

I found a few more videos. Pretty thin - but something.

May this be a Blessing to you and us all. [And all our Futures, and future Multiverse Pasts.]

The screenshot shows the Wikipedia article for 'Interdict'. The main text explains that in Catholic canon law, an interdict is an ecclesiastical censure or ban that prohibits persons, certain active Church individuals or groups from participating in certain rites, or that the rites and services of the church are banished from having validity in certain territories for a limited or extended time. The page includes sections for 'Before 1917', '1917 Code of Canon Law', 'Distinctions', and 'Effects'. A sidebar on the right lists various categories of Canon law of the Catholic Church, such as 'Ius vigens (current law)', 'Legal history', 'Eastern law', 'Liturgical law', 'Sacramental law', 'Matrimonial law', 'Supreme authority, particular churches, and canonical structures', 'Jurisprudence', 'Temporal goods (property)', 'Law of persons', 'Canonical documents', 'Penal law', 'Procedural law', 'Legal practice and scholarship', and 'Law of consecrated life'. A 'Catholicism portal' is also visible at the bottom right of the sidebar.

"A Racial Plan for the Twentieth Century"

Israel Cohen
1912

We must realize that our party's most powerful weapon is racial tension. By propounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the whites, we can mould them to the program of the Communist Party. In America we will aim for subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the whites, we will endeavor to instill in the whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, the Negro will be able to intermarry with the whites and begin a process which will deliver America to our cause.
