Good Sunday Morning,
May the Spirit of the Gospel and the Holy Word be Always on our Tongues, in our Hearts, Minds, and in our Hands.
Holy Virgin Mary and All Saints - Pray for us!

Index Number 1831:

[Sunday morning and some editing and finish publication of this will likely be finished sometime this afternoon after Church, Mass and after Mass coffee-hour.]

In this morning's prayers and meditations I reflected a bit on the warping of the Profane representation of The Holy Word, as in Biblical Interpretations, and actual active changes by [Golden Calf Satanist directed] Christian Sects and even Bishops within a nation.

Every morning recently as I get out of bed and start my morning routine I put on The Daily TV Mass's (<https://www.youtube.com/@DailyTVMass>) content for that day, listening to the readings, singing, and sometimes the Homily into the prayers before the Consecration – depending on where I am in my morning routine.

The group is in Canada and as such I have noticed significant Scriptural Difference boarding on the disgusting ignorantly Absurd – like 'FisherPeople' instead of 'FisherMen' (as men or man comes from the Romans meaning 'Doer' and is sexless to begin with) to clear re-expressing sections which remove some alternate meanings (the Ambiguity is a Holy Feature – giving often many views and Meta and Micro meanings) under the 'disguise' or justification of making simpler – one can assume.

These are shades towards actual re-writing of sections to fit changes in Doctrine which Martin Luther did related to removing 'Works' and so stating the 'Faith Alone' from at least one of St. Paul's Letter is all that is need for Salvation.

I do not know for sure but it would follow that such would cause further breaking-down (deConstructing) the followers who would want to return to the actual scripture yet still not return to the True(er) Original version – Catholicism from Pride and Satanic self-destruction .. as we know from the constant repeated history of Protestants self-destruction through similar deconstructions and disagreements based on unfounded or founded-on-error changes.

And I have written about the Fruit of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil being actually the Fig as the Dead Sea Scrolls attests, and we see that the fig-leaves were mention, yet the Apple has been the replacement which actively divorces the actions in scripture of Jesus Cursing the Fig Tree and stating that only through Him will It's Fruit be allowed – which happened on His journey to His Passion.

Is this not at least suggestive to people of Design? Satanic Design?

Something along the same Theme and I mentioned – added to later – in my post from Yesterday (archived,) that I got to considering why Wikipedia actually wrote so little about the book I referenced recently related to what I thought was a very very significant and critical aspect of the story – The Primmer – which was not unlike a specialized AI-driven Dedicated Smart-Phone for Educational development, with access to the world's technical knowledge and even had people hired to read real-time the information, giving the personal interface.

So, remembering the video's I have seen of one of the founder's of Wikipedia's Satanic Poisoning since it's creation and deviating it from the ideal that existed until Soros Funding (and perhaps other Golden Calf Venture Capital Satanists') involvement, explaining of the now Locked-out and Warped Political mind-Raping found in much of it ..

.. I wondered if there were earlier versions of the entry under Archive.today (<https://archive.ph>) and yes, there was one version from 2015 and although it did not go into the detail or even significantly discuss such a potentially revolutionary idea who's time has long past for it's implementation in this vile Satanic directed cntHell where those in power Hate us and want us all dead or suffering endlessly in Sin and Burning in Hell .. there was a huge part of the entry Removed since 2015, and it is clearly worse for it.

Please compare the images towards end below in Facebook version and SubStack before Memes-Images – or look at the different versions Archived to see what the Soros Funded Mind-Raping Golden Calf Witch minions have removed of the Wikipedia information between mutilated and Castrated version now.

And entire well written section under Heading: 'Major themes' removed from directly after 'Characters'.

Imagine what can be derived of the warping of history and mind-raping the Witches are directing from WikiPedia and other similar (like News-Media Websites that happened to be Archived.)

A good AI Search should be able to draw-away with the Targeted Evils the Golden Calf Satanist Venture Capitalists and minions of the international Witch-Matriarchal ruling families.

I have run out of time – over time in fact .. imagine if a decent group of programmers and a good AI went through all such changes and marked the ones most likely Political and-or Satanicly directed.

May this be a Blessing to you and us all. [And all our Futures, and future Multiverse Pasts.]

Wow! .. sounds Slimy (unJust and disOrdering – and possibly UnTrue ..all Signs of Satan's Hand) from the Vatican – and suggest Hatred of Religious, if not Women and Womanhood.

Attacks of Reliqious and those Nuns - those who Model themselves

Female-Evil they will seek to destroy women and womanhood.

While reading the material Anthony Stine has too inject 'code words' so as not to be flagged by YouTube .. a sad state of affairs which makes it unclear. The sources found in this web-site are linked after video.

I watched a bit of this and found her engaging and the topic significant.

From this interview – so far - seems like Lionel Shriver (archived) writing might be worth looking into.

Unfortunately, there is a group of YouTube time:subject menu in the video description but in a form that I can not copy-past, but if you have access then you might consider using – or at least review – it, ..

Another good over-view .. I want to mention the concept of public accessible web based education as I have brought-up before – where public schooling only lasts a few years to focus only on very basic core material if parents unable to home school - and then many of the now teacher positions will be more individual Student's management (with parents involvement) of what lectures to cover and be reviewed from Web, and generating material for world-wide use on subjects, etc.

And example of material is Prof Sadler's on-line presence and materials. His Hegel's lectures can be found in the YouTube playlist URL which follows the video., ..

novel, when he is involved in the battle between the Celestial Kingdom and the Coastal Republic.

- Miss Matheson - The head teacher at the academy where Nell, Fiona and Elizabeth attend. She instructs Nell to find her own path.
- Miss Stricken - An authoritarian teacher at the Miss Matheson's Academy who frequently uses corporal punishment on the students for minor infractions. During a confrontation with Nell Stricken attempts to strike her with the ruler only to be immediately disarmed due to Nell's physical training by the Primer; this leads to her Elizabeth and Fiona all being placed in detention where they are forced to mindlessly copy from textbooks.

Major themes ^[edit]

While The Diamond Age can be viewed primarily as a coming-of-age or Bildungsroman central plot centered on a female character, analysis reveals several interconnected themes.

Personal and societal connections ^[edit]

The Diamond Age includes several themes that encompass connections between individuals and between individuals and social groups. All the girls who receive Primers are taught, but Nell is taught primarily by a single individual, Miranda, who forms a strong bond with her student. It is this bond that makes the Primer a transformative agent in Nell's life.

The society depicted in the book is one that values cultural association over "racial" affiliation; some characters (especially Lord Finkle-McDraw) hold the belief that certain cultural systems are naturally superior to others. Cultural affiliation is sufficiently important as to have rendered the nation-state obsolete. Education, the means by which culture is transmitted, assumes primacy over biological ancestry. The Diamond Age also demonstrates the immutability of civilization: the author writes at the end of the novel, "The changes in the world as it will be tomorrow, today changes in the present so that it will be tomorrow. But not tomorrow, but today."

However, the difference can also be interpreted as a desirable feature that prevents a new form of civilization, one without the slavery and violence in the training of women. The theme of the authority of culture over that of biology is also evident in an early chapter of the book. The book's narrator also explains the "racial" and "cultural" affiliations of the characters in the novel, and how they are passed on to their children. The book's narrator explains that the "racial" and "cultural" affiliations of the characters are passed on to their children through the Primer, which is a form of cultural transmission. The book's narrator explains that the "racial" and "cultural" affiliations of the characters are passed on to their children through the Primer, which is a form of cultural transmission.

Female literacy revolution ^[edit]

The educational that pervades much of the Victorian Age and the Victorian era is a form of education that is designed to produce a certain type of person. The book's narrator explains that the "racial" and "cultural" affiliations of the characters are passed on to their children through the Primer, which is a form of cultural transmission. The book's narrator explains that the "racial" and "cultural" affiliations of the characters are passed on to their children through the Primer, which is a form of cultural transmission.
