ONE THOUGHT TO “FFWN: IF YOU TELL THE TRUTH, MAKE IT FUNNY OR THEY’LL KILL YOU”

Kevin,

I met Gregory several times and he worked with a political comic/satirist I managed, Barry Crimmins. Chappell made his way through Boston about the same time that my run at Catch A Rising Star Comedy and Music Club came to an end. Carlin was the best comic ever IMO...and a witty belligerent political commentator. I saw him in Hampton Beach NH right in the middle of his “censorship tour”...aka...“The Seven Words One Must NOT Say” tour. HE WAS THE BEST...PERIOD! I tried to get Bill Hicks to play Catch but could not pull it off before he met his premature death. Speaking of early deaths of politically oriented performers, both Bill Hicks and Phil Ochs [a 60s-70s era political folk-ish singer] , met earlier than expected deaths...and BOTH because of alleged drinking issues. However, I attended a “Phil Ochs Revisited” benefit show at a theater in Somerville MA owned by friend, former client and political comic Jimmy Tingle and Ochs’ remaining family made strong points that Phil was actually murdered by what we now call the “deep state”. And I chatted with Hick’s close comic friend, Bret Butler [of Grace Under Fire], and she said that Bill did drink a lot...but not that much. Hicks almost always closed his shows somehow BOTH: making it funny...and making a point that health and food NOT bombs and NOT WAR was a better way forward...DEAD GUY! And I was around the folk music scene in the 60s and 70s, and it was PHIL OCHS who presented the biggest challenge to “The War Machine”. Check out his work sometime. Pete Seeger was a “commie” and he could be minimized easily...much the same for Joan Baez. Dylan softened up a bit after “Masters Of War”...and he disappeared almost totally from any anti-war music and actually has cleverly been helping the Zionists for over three decades now...TRAITOR! And Buffy Saint Marie’s albums and works were placed in the back of book and record stores by the FBI!!! She got the message and retired to Hawaii. Buffy wrote “Universal Soldier” in case you want to check out her “speaking truth to WAR POWER”. And, along with Crimmins and Tingle, I also worked with political comics Randy Credico [of recent Trump/Roger Stone fame], and Will Durst [a native Wisconsin-er]. Those four were featured on the best political comedy album in the late 80s-early 90s...“Strange Bedfellows”. And I even got mentioned in the credits of Crimmins’ solo comedy album: “Don’t Kill The Messenger.” So...I agree with “funny helps with troubling messaging”...lets hope that you DO get to use your comic wit somehow-somewhere...and DO NOT get snuffed! Peace...robin
